What Should We Do?

ирвінг Вашингтон

What should we do?
What should we do?
Should we sniff some glue?
Should we eat a shoe?
Should we burn our beds,
Or hammer our heads?
Should we boil our dogs,
Then snort like hogs?
Should we use the jen,
Or use our pants?
Should we throw down nails
And start to dance?
We don’t know what to do today
Now the grownups have gone away.

History

ирвінг Вашингтон

In tenth grade history
We learned that Jack F. Kennedy
Was shot from the book depository,
But I misnamed it book suppository.
How painful, a book up the ass.
How very much like history class.

Unsolicited Advice

Achievement’s gone,
But those are not.
‘Cause once you got
It doesn’t shimmer.
Great joy comes now.
But in potential power.
A case-in-point: some,
You see a girl across.
‘Tis best to simply
Just watch her stare.
Don’t speak to help.
True beauty’s seen.
For once she says,
Your burning fire.
So best are dreams.
(This poem was
I shouldn’t have written.
A waste of paper!
ruined it.
Therefore no hyperbole or cut rhyming song “snuffed!” That endless...
