

Chocolate Coin

Miles W. Curtiss

Everyone has been accounted for.
The Judas clan of my heart is packed
and waiting at the door.
I need you to take this as a gift.
If you can't,
all of this is wasted.

We must press on
to the other side of this.
...strong words
from a sinking ship...

Give a kiss to everyone above,
and a chocolate coin to everyone I love.
If the hounds of spring
come biting at your knees,
tell them all
they have been released.

We must press on
to the other side of this.
...strong words
from a sinking ship...

Strong words for a man on a sinking ship.
