

ISSUE CONTENTS

04 Student Employees
Lead the Library

08 Guiding University
Libraries Forward

10 Finding Inspiration
in Primary Sources

13 Liaison Librarian and Business Professor
Collaborate to Increase Student
Learning

13 Staff Impact:
Bob Kozminski

14 Exhibits Aim to Welcome and Connect New Students to Grand Valley

ABOUT US

Off the Shelf is a biannual publication written by and about Grand Valley State University Libraries. The goal of the publication is to share the impact University Libraries has on faculty, staff, and students at Grand Valley.

Each issue of the publication will highlight resources and services, shedding light on the role that University Libraries plays in the Grand Valley community. If you have any questions about resources discussed in Off the Shelf, please contact University Libraries to learn how you can use them to benefit your work.

LEARN MORE

For more information about Off the Shelf email: offtheshelf@gvsu.edu

For past issues of Off the Shelf visit:
scholarworks.gvsu.edu/offtheshelf

For more information about University Libraries visit: gvsu.edu/library

OFF THE SHELF TEAM

Editors:

Erin Fisher
Kristin Meyer
Lindy Scripps-Hoekstra
Marissa LaPorte

Writing:

Linda Anderson
Cara Cadena
Erin Fisher
Marissa LaPorte
Kristin Meyer
Kiersten Quilliams
Leigh Rupinski
Jenna Vainner

Layout and Design:
Courtney Wagasky

Cover Image: Meathe, Kessler & Associates architectural drawing of student study lounge/fireplace area in the Collegiate Center, which was renamed Seidman House ca. 1962.