COMING EVENTS

Grand Valley Bands to Perform

The GVSC bands will present a "Salute to MSBOA" concert on Tuesday, February 28, at 8:00 p.m. in the Calder Fine Arts Center. The concert is open to the public free of charge.

The Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association (MSBOA), currently celebrating its 50th anniversary, has long been recognized as the voice of instrumental music for public and private schools in Michigan. Virtually every school in the state is a member and participates in the many festivals, workshops, and seminars sponsored by MSBOA.

The GVSC Concert Band, Wind Ensemble, and Faculty Woodwind Quintet will be the primary performing groups featured at the concert. Quintet members are: Christopher Kantner, flute; Paul Grischke, clarinet; Kathleen Gomez, oboe; Martha Bowman, bassoon; and Margie Gage, French horn. Appearing as soloists will be Wade Perkins, a GVSC junior from Jenison, and Becky Burkert, a senior from Fruitport. The band has invited three MSBOA District Presidents to be guest conductors: Robert Hill, Crestwood Middle School, Kentwood; John Beery, Marshall High School; and Bruce Harwood, Muskegon High School.

The concert will include contemporary music as well as traditional marches and other selected numbers.

GRAND VALLEY FORUM

The Grand Valley Forum is published every Monday by the Public Relations Office. Copy deadline is the Tuesday noon prior to publication. All materials should be sent to Sharon Coeling, editor, Public Relations Office, 26 Zumberge Library, GVSC, Allendale MI, 49401. Telephone: 895-3221.

Allendale Chamber of Commerce To Meet

For your advance information, the March meeting of the Allendale Chamber of Commerce is planned for the second Thursday in March, March 8. A speaker will report on the Ottawa County Work-Release Program.

GVSC is a member of the Chamber, and interested faculty and staff are invited to attend all Chamber luncheons. They are held in the Allendale Township Hall at noon. Luncheon cost is $3.50 and reservations are necessary. Call the Allendale Telephone Company at 895-4312 before 5 p.m. on the preceding Tuesday to reserve a place.

FACULTY AND STAFF SKETCHES

Ursula Franklin, professor of French, was invited to Purdue University on February 17 to give a talk on "Comparative Literature, Its Prospects and Goals."

Dewey Hoitenga, professor of philosophy, is the author of an article, "Faith and Reason in Calvin's Doctrine of the Knowledge of God," included in an anthology entitled Rationality in the Calvinian Tradition, edited by H. Hart, J. Vanderhoeven, and N. Wolterstorff. The book, published by the University Press of America, was released in December, 1983.

Hoitenga will present a paper, "Faith, Reason, and Certainty in St. Augustine," at the Eastern Regional Conference of the Society of Christian Philosophers, to be held at the University of Notre Dame, March 8-10.

Ann Rancourt, associate professor of physical education and recreation, presented a Leisure Education Workshop on February 9 for the Metro Detroit Therapeutic Recreation Society in Sterling Heights.

Antionette N. Turner, Director of Special Services, will serve on the executive board of the Michigan Division of Career Development for the Handicapped. She has also been appointed to the Historic Preservation Commission for the city of Grand Rapids.

Turner recently attended a conference on Minority Women in Higher Education at Oakland University.
