COMING EVENTS

Olympic Wrestling Trials

The Olympic Wrestling tryouts, to be held in the Field House arena, will begin on Saturday, June 16. The three rounds of qualifying tournaments for fourth position will be held at 9 a.m., 2 p.m., and 7 p.m. Tickets will be available at the door.

Olympic wrestling team competition matches will be held from June 18-23, with preliminary competitions at 1 p.m. and 7 p.m. on June 18, 19, 21, and 22. Finals will be held on June 20 and 23 at 1 p.m. and 7 p.m.

Daily general admission for the competition matches is $5.00 for preliminaries and $8.00 for finals; student tickets are $3.00 and $5.00, and reserved seat tickets are $15.00 and $20.00, respectively.

Tickets will be sold by the day only and are available through Dan Karpanty, 189 Field House, ext. 3265.

West Michigan Run For the Olympic Gold

On Saturday, June 16, a group of runners will be loping across campus to raise money in support of the U.S. Olympic Committee. The 10 kilometer run is open to anyone who wishes to participate and will begin at the Field House at 10 a.m.

For each $100 a runner raises, an entry will be placed in a drawing to be held at Sharpe Buick/BMW Inc. in Grand Rapids on July 5. The holder of the winning ticket will receive a trip for two to the Summer Olympics in Los Angeles.

The event is co-sponsored by GVSC, Sharpe Buick/BMW Inc., and the Grand Rapids Press. Those wishing to participate should call Tom Lawless at Sharpe Buick/BMW, 452-5101, before June 10.

FACULTY AND STAFF SKETCHES

Sharon Babcock, director of educational services at WGVC-TV, was recently elected to the executive committee for the Educational Technology Center of the Central Educational Network. She was also elected as midwest representative to the Interregional Telecommunication for Education Coordinating Council which plans the satellite schedule of programs for national use by instructional television.

Gilbert Davis, professor of English, will be participating in "Chautauqua Tonight," a celebration of the humanities, to be presented on various Michigan college campuses this summer. Davis' topic will be "America's Ongoing Revolution," which will explore the promise of freedom extended through the Bill of Rights. He will give the presentation at four locations throughout the mid-Michigan area.

Bob Giesey, head football coach, recently served on a three-member panel which discussed the recruitment of student athletes at the Division II level. Representatives from Michigan State University and Alma College also served on the panel.

Laura Gardner Salazar, associate professor of theatre, appeared as Bertha in a May 10-13 production of "The Magic Horn" at the Grand Rapids Civic Theatre.

Howard VandeVusse, director of purchasing, received the Distinguished Buyer of the Year Award bestowed recently at the third annual Minority Procurement Dialogue

Conference held in Kalamazoo. The award is given by the Division of Minority Business Enterprise of the Michigan Department of Commerce and recognizes that GVSC had a greater percentage of increase in purchasing goods and services from minority or women-owned vendors than any other member of the state's corporate and public purchasing community.

ACROSS CAMPUS

Motor Pool Rate Increases

Robert Fansler, Physical Plant Officer, announces a 5% increase in motor pool rates, effective July 1. Fansler says there have been no rate increases, other than for buses, since 1982 and the hike is necessary to cover increased operating and replacement costs. The new rates will be:

Vehicle Type	Rate Per Mile
Sedan	$.27
Station Wagon	.34
Van	.40
Bus	.82

Car Rental Discounts

The Purchasing Department announces contract renewal with Hertz, Avis, and National car rentals. The contracts specify special discounts which may be applied to rentals acquired for either business or personal use. Identification stickers, available through the Purchasing Office, are required to obtain these discounts.
