Mission Statement

The mission of the Michigan Journal of Public Health is to promote public health practice, research and policy with specific focus on Michigan and the Great Lakes Region. We encourage contributions from the field of practice, original research, opinion and commentary. It is the expressed interest of this Journal to encourage dissemination from the field of public health practice.

Statement of Affiliation with the Michigan Public Health Association

The Michigan Public Health Association (MPHA) is the organizing entity of the Michigan Journal of Public Health (MJPH) and is responsible for the publicizing and publication of the journal. The members of the Editorial Board are solicited from among public health practitioners and researchers in Michigan, and approved by the Board of MPHA. MJPH Editorial Board members must also be members of MPHA. Members serve three year terms, but service may be terminated either through a letter of resignation to the Editorial Board or upon a majority vote of the Board of MPHA.

Author Guidelines

STYLE:

APA, 12 point font, Times New Roman double spaced, and, 1” margin. We offer a variety of submission categories in order to welcome a varied audience within public health.

SUBMISSION CATEGORIES:

Research and Practice Articles (up to 15 pages or 3500 excluding references, words in main text, a total of 4 standard digital photographs/tables/figures, and a structured abstract of 180 words) report the results of original quantitative or qualitative public health research. These may include, but are not limited to: evaluations/reports, demonstrations of innovative programs, best practice, exemplars/community-engaged scholarship, service learning, emerging problems, evidence-based practice and preliminary findings.

Commentaries (up to 10 pages or 2500 words in main text, 2 tables/figures, and an unstructured abstract of 120 words) include scholarly essays, critical analyses, and policy papers.

Analytic Essays (up to 15 pages or 3500 words excluding references, in main text, a total of 4 standard digital photographs/tables/figures, and an unstructured abstract of 120 words) provide a forum for critical analyses of public health issues from disciplines other than the biomedical sciences, including, but not limited to: the social sciences, human rights, and ethics.

Briefs (up to 4 pages or 500 words excluding references, in main text, 2 tables/figures, and an abstract of up to 80 words) provide preliminary or novel findings. (What about a section exclusively for new book reviews?)

Editorials (may not exceed 1,200 words) are solicited based on recommendations from the Editorial Board, or members of MPHA. All recommendations require approval from the MJPH Editorial Board.

Letters to MJPH (must not exceed 400 words and contain no more than 10 references) are encouraged by our readers. Letters may include any public health topic.

SUBMISSION FORM:

All authors must sign and submit via surface mail the submission form along with a draft article. The form is available at:
