Vicky Buck

Gramma's blue cooking apron
Lay crumpled on the floor.
The summer breeze blew gently
Through the kitchen's warped screen door.
The radio played softly,
An old romantic tune,
That marvelous magical night
Gramma danced with the Man in the Moon.
Said she wished upon a star,
Never thought she'd see the day
She'd be two-steppin' through the sky,
Headed straight for the Milky Way.
She still has the apron
Hanging on the door.
That creaks when it slowly opens
As she dances across the floor.
