Please Hang in There

I am happiest upside down. Head earthbound, my feet point skyward to True North.

I am here, a new child pressing my head to the portal, blood obeying gravity with an icy clarity. Balancing. I can fathom, see the world as it really is, outside of time. I am suspended, a river of hair, a volcano of atoms, always dangling, hanging

with no words. It is the most natural place for me to be -

flipped,

I

come

together.

Together,

come.

flipped

place, for me to be

with no words. It is the most natural -

a volcano of atoms, always dangling, hanging, as it really is, outside of time. I am suspended, a river of hair, gravity with an icy clarity. Balancing. I can fathom, see the world.

I am here, a new child pressing my head to the portal, blood obeying.

I am happiest upside down. Head earthbound, my feet point skyward to True North.
