The Michigan Reading Journal (MRJ), ISSN 0047-7125, is published by the Michigan Reading Association (MRA), an intermediate council of the International Literacy Association. The MRJ, dedicated to the dissemination of information to improve the teaching of reading, presents articles on a wide spectrum of topics and issues in reading, language arts, and literature, pre-school through adult levels. The MRJ incorporates articles that address both theory and practice.

The MRA was founded in 1956. The MRJ has been published since the spring of 1967 and is abstracted and indexed in the “Current Index to Journals in Education” of the Educational Resources Information Center (ERIC). Membership in the MRA includes a subscription to the MRJ. Single copies are $5.00 prepaid.

Because The MRJ represents an open forum, the viewpoints expressed herein are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect or imply endorsement or advocacy by the MRA, its officers, or its members. Open access to The MRJ is available through Grand Valley State University's Scholarworks system at <scholarworks.gvsu.edu/mrj>.
