My bones were still, to understand
This chilly breeze, this slice of land.

My ears were stung as quiet rings,
Like lack of sounds that made them sing.

/Brian Vanderlaan/

D            From now on I will
O            Board up my ears and eyes,
U            Shut off my lights
B            And retreat,
L            Myself and I,
E            Leaving only a candle lit.
S            And we will say that
O            No one is at home.
