Announcements

COL BERGE, this year's visiting Artist at TJC, has published stories in several magazines since her arrival here in September. She will be reading from these works and from her novel on Tuesday, April 27 in the Multi-Purpose Room of the Campus Center at 7:00 PM. This reading is for the purpose of establishing two Writing Scholarships for TJC students.

There will be a TJC FREE NIGHT at Stage 3, April 15, for the opening of A Streetcar Named Désire, 8:30 PM.

Two women interested in attending TJC-- BETH FRANCIS from New Jersey and WENDY LUCK from Wisconsin, will be visiting TJC today. It's their last day here, so if you see them a-wandering, show them around TJC.

BILL STRICKLAND's Ceramics Exhibit will continue in the Campus Center Art Gallery through April 18th. If you haven't seen it yet, do make the effort. It is well worth it.

A new edition of the NEWSLETTER will be published fairly soon. If you have something you want included, see Mary TODAY!

And if you haven't picked up the last copy of the NEWSLETTER, you can do so in the TJC Main Office. They will not be mailed out.

Linda Corbett Carver will be giving a recital on FRENCH HORN, April 17th in the Louis Armstrong Theatre; 6:00 PM. Linda is a member of the Grand Rapids Symphony as well as being an instructor at TJC. And since it is FREE not to mention the cultural enlightenment to be gained, you should check it out.

John Warren and Bill Strickland will be presenting their GEO/CERAMIC EXHIBIT at the TJC Mass Meeting on Wednesday, April 14th at noon. Hoo, hoo, should be interesting. Don't miss it!

THE GRADUATE, the infamous movie starring Dustin Hoffman, will be showing today in 132 Lake Huron Hall at 3:30 and also at 6:00; FREE.

We need ADDRESSES--yours and those of any graduate/alumni you may have kept in contact with. Stop in at the TJC Office, today.

Personals

MARY ELLEN OWEN: Your book, Between Prent and Child, is in the Student Resource Center. Thank you. Alan.

MICHAEL ZURPHY: The elevator operator at the Helmer Building in downtown Grand Rapids found some personal papers and a check that belongs to you. Contact him as soon as you can.

TO ALL: Just as we live in a universe where single realities express themselves in two opposite polarities or valences, so also we live in an infinite universe where everything is relative. Andrew Weill
