Announcements

Mary T. has just been made a grandmother for the very second time! Jennifer Ann, made her wordly entrance last evening and has given Mary a day-long case of perpetual smiles. la, la.

MICHAEL HENRY, TJC's visiting mime artist, will be performing this afternoon, 12:15, in the Multi-Purpose Room in the Campus Center.

CAROL BERGE, this year's visiting Artist has published stories in several magazines since her arrival here in September. She will be reading from these works and from her novel on Tuesday, April 27 in the Multi-Purpose Room of the Campus Center at 7:00 PM. This reading is for the purpose of establishing two Writing Scholarships for TJC students.

BILL STRICKLAND's Ceramics Exhibit will continue in the Campus Center Art Gallery through April 18th.

MICHAEL FADEN's painting exhibit, "Social Surrealism," will be in the TJC Art Gallery until April 26.

LINDA CORBETT CARVER will be giving a recital on French Horn, April 17th in the Louis Armstrong Theatre, 6:00 PM. Linda is a member of the Grand Rapids Symphony as well as being an instructor at TJC.

TONIGHT is TJC FREE NIGHT at Stage Three for the opening of A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE.

NO SCHOOL FRIDAY, April 16, which by the way, is tomorrow. Classes will not be held and the Campus will have a lovely, temporary shut-down.

"People's Park," and "Redevelopment," two films presented by the Union for Radical Political Economics, will be showing for FREE this afternoon in 2 Lake Huron Hall, at 3:30 and 7:00 PM.

Tickets for Carol Berge's Reading can be purchased, for fifty cents, from either Mary T., in the TJC Main Office or at the bookstore and also, at the door.

We STILL need ADDRESSES----yours and those of any graduate/alumni you may have kept in contact with.
