Announcements

CAROL BERGE will be giving a reading of her published works TOMORROW at 7:00PM in the Multi-Purpose Room of the Campus Center. This reading is being done as a benefit to help establish two writing scholarships for TJC students. Tickets are available at the TJC Main Office for only 50¢. For the opportunity of hearing Carol read and lending aid to all the struggling writers in and around TJC, surely you should plan to attend.

MICHAEL HENRY, TJC's Visiting Artist and founder of the MIME Workshop in NYC will be giving a special program on Wednesday, April 28 at 8:15 PM in the Louis Armstrong Theatre. Through mime, explains Michael, "a person learns to seek, to probe, to investigate, the essential shapes of life-- a tree, a stallion, fire, fear, a cloud, a conversation, lust, laughter, love, war, innocence, all with clarity, ease and economy." The performance will be FREE.

The Co-Ordinating Committee will meet Tuesday, April 27 at NOON. All members--Please be prompt.

WORK STUDY STUDENTS: If you haven't filled out your time cards yet, do hurry and get them in TODAY.

DAVID ARIS---Mary Tepastte would like to see you as soon as possible.

A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE, by Tennessee Williams is at Stage 3 Wednesdays-Saturdays until May 15/ Special cards allowing GVSC students to purchase two tickets for the price of one for any Wed. or Thursday performance are available in the Student Resource Center.

While working on a machine in Bill Strickland's Pottery Class, TJC student BRIAN DUNN had three fingers sliced (the middle one was cut in half). Brian has no insurance and the college will not cover this. He has no money nor any other resources and we hope that perhaps you can contribute something. The hospital and doctor bills at present amount to $300.00. Please bring your contributions to Mary T. in the Main Office. Thanks.

THE ALLIANCE FOR CLEAN ENERGY will be sponsoring a conference entitled "Energy: What Are The Options?", Fri. April 30 and Saturday May 1 at Aquinas College in Grand Rapids. There are ways of generating energy without doing violence to the environment, say the group and the conference will explore these alternatives. Beginning at 7:00 PM on Friday, the conference will cost $1.00 for students.

The Campus Activities Office has scheduled a multitude of celebrative Spring happenings starting May 12. Though it may be hard to believe when surrounded by last night's snowfall, Spring IS coming. And coming May 12 will be Cabbage Crik, Kite-flying, a twilight hayride May 16, canoe races, music-music-music around the pong and campus center and dozens of others. For a week-by-week update and additional information check the Calendar of Events put out every Friday.

Lost/Found--

If anyone finds my copy of Stafford Beer's Brain of the Firm, turn it into the TJC Main Office. Don Klein.

LOST: A ring of car keys with Chrysler emblem were lost in Lake Huron Hall last Thursday morning. If found please return them to JAMES SUTTON, 243-1682 or drop them off with Carlotta Miller at Ed. Studies upstairs in Lake Huron Hall.
