TONIGHT is the Benefit Reading

CAROL BERGE: 7:00 PM in the Multi-purpose Room of the Campus Center. This reading is being done as a benefit to help establish two writing scholarships for TJC students. Tickets are available in the TJC Main Office, the bookstore and at the door for only 50¢. For the opportunity of hearing Carol read and lending aid to all the struggling writers in and around TJC, surely you should plan to attend.

THE CO-ORDINATING COMMITTEE will meet today, at NOON. All members--please be prompt.

TRISH RECORD, Environmental lawyer and Midwest representative of the Sierra Club will be on campus in Room 225 in the Commons at 1:30 PM! All students and faculty wanting information on current environmental problems are invited to come and talk with Ms. Record.

MICHAEL HENRY, TJC's Visiting Artist and founder of the MIME Workshop in NYC, will be giving a special program Tomorrow at 8:15 in the Louis Armstrong Theatre. Through mime, Michael explains, "a person learns to seek, to probe, to investigate the essential shapes of life--a tree, a stallion, fire fear, a cloud, a conversation, lust, laughter, love, war, innocence all with clarity, ease and economy." The performance will be free.

A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE, by Tennessee Williams is at Stage 3 Wednesdays through Saturdays until May 15. Special cards allowing GVSC students to purchase two tickets for the price of one for any Wed. or Thursday performance are available in the Student Resource Center.

President Lubbers has called for a CONVOCATION OF THE COLLEGES, Thursday April 29 at 3:30 PM in the Multi Purpose Room of the Campus Center, for the purpose of honoring the visiting Yugoslav delegation. All students and faculty are requested to attend and to aid in this exploration of increased educational exchanges and of professional training for increasing East-West international trade.

The Campus Activities Office has scheduled a multitude of celebrative Spring happenings starting May 12. Some of the included events are Cabbage Crik, Kite-flying and canoe races, a twilight hayride May 16, music-music-music around the pond and Campus Center; and dozens of others. For a week-by-week update and description check the Calendar of Events put out every Friday.

MUGSY SPOOZIE needs contributions! Poetry, algebraic theories, essays, dreams, etc. Deadline May 10. Send to 247 Henry Street, Grand Rapids.

While working on a machine in Bill Strickland's Pottery Class, TJC student BRIAN DUNN had three fingers sliced with the middle one being cut in half. Brian has no insurance, no money nor other resources and as the college will not cover this, perhaps you can contribute something. The hospital and doctor bills at present amount to $300.00. Please bring your contributions to Mary T. in the Main Office. Thanks.
