UNTITLED

On the cemetery for sedentary
sedimentary leaves,
I drift,
glide thru the earth, which spreads
its glorious rainment in a vista of glowing treasure stretching to meet a dove-grey sky.
My paddle rests.

Cynthia A. Stevens

There is never enough time
To do those things we Wish to get done in A lifetime. Before
We attain even Half of the Things we Hope for
We all
Die.
