Announcements

TODAY, at 3:00 PM, Z. Budapest, Hungarian born feminist witch, will present the "FIRST FEMINIST WITCHY REVIVAL", a lecture and slide show in 132 Lake Huron Hall. Ms. Budapest's current national tour has the goal of "...turning women on to their national and psychic powers and to educate women about goddess-worship and why it is political." This event is sponsored by William James and TJC and is FREE.

Starting at 9:00 AM TODAY, FOREIGN LANGUAGE DAY will be happening all over campus. You can experience anything from Russian choirs to Spanish skits to a French variety show. For more information, check the schedule in the TJC Office or pick one up outside the Louis Armstrong Theatre.

A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE, by Tennessee Williams is at Stage 3, Wednesdays through Saturdays until May 15. Special cards allowing GVSC students to purchase two tickets for the price of one for any Wed. or Thurs. night performance are available in the Student Resource Center.

"The Go-Between", a film starring Julie Christie, Alan Bates and Michael Redgrave will be shown TODAY in 3:30 and 6:00 PM in Room 132 Lake Huron Hall. No admission charge.

Beginning at 8 AM TODAY is the Forty Mile Walk for Justice, sponsored by the GVSC UFW Support Committee in honor of International Farmworker Week. Tomorrow at 7 PM there will be a rally at St. Andrew's Cathedral with UFW President Richard Chavez. All faculty and students are invited to take part in these and other events planned by the Committee.

PAUL CAMERON, faculty candidate, will be visiting Monday, May 10. He will meet with interested students and faculty in the TJC Commons from 11:00-12:00 noon. His Vita is posted outside the TJC Office.

POET LISEL MUELLER will be on campus Monday, May 10 and will be giving a poetry reading Tuesday, May 11 in the Campus Center at noon, in Conference rooms A, B, & C. Ms. Mueller's 2nd volume of poetry, The Private Life has been announced the winner of the 1975 Lamont Poetry Prize. She has also published works in Poetry, The New Yorker and Rising Tides.
