CALL FOR PAPERS

SPRING, 1994

The Grand Valley Review, the Honors Program, and Phi Kappa Phi are jointly sponsoring the second annual, interdisciplinary, student/faculty symposium at Cook De Witt Center, on Tuesday, February 28, and Wednesday, March 1, 1995. This year's topic grows out of the recent report of the task force on the internationalization of the curriculum. The topic for the symposium is "Internationalization and GVSU." Proposals for essays, talks, and panel discussions should be submitted to Roberta Simone, Editor, 166 Lake Huron Hall, or Lee Lebbin, presiding officer of Phi Kappa Phi, Loutit Library. Some of these presentations will be published in the special topic section of the spring, 1995 issue of the Grand Valley Review.

We also welcome, as usual, scholarly essays for a general academic audience, informal essays, poetry, fiction, reviews of books or productions, and art. Student works may also be submitted if they are recommended by a member of the faculty. Both hard copy and diskette should be sent to Roberta Simone, 166 Lake Huron Hall. Deadline is March 15, 1994.
