Remembering the Holocaust

Bob Vance

Grand Valley State University

Follow this and additional works at: http://scholarworks.gvsu.edu/amaranthus

Recommended Citation

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by ScholarWorks@GVSU. It has been accepted for inclusion in Amaranthus by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks@GVSU. For more information, please contact scholarworks@gvsu.edu.
Remembering the Holocaust

"...my skin Bright as a Nazi lampshade."
--Sylvia Plath

This is the chamber I've given myself for you and your kin the ones pushed into bodied ravines buried methodically
scientifically
but this room has no shower nozzle to fool me with gas no
lines to separate me from my children no
my stomach does the pulling down sores and bubbles
and then (you are making sure I remember the German in me and the Jew)
it burns.

With your talk of atrocity (gold teeth in my pocket mountainous piles of shoes with a pair that were mine) I must hurt somewhere so I choose a spot
and nail it.

/ Bob Vance /

"Requiem for a Dream" by Michigan
Grade ... a majority of students do not respond to the question why they should care why they study

high school history
not present
it seem relevant.
If a more relevant one can be found.

One method of teaching a Juster's
both of which concepts in the world.

Through themselves to manipulate these instructions and learn student responses to the question with he is doing
even bother
the teacher is about why
simply by solving that remains
the problem of another all must, at the numerical