Issue 22

-that's right, folks! It's November!

STUDENTS: Thursday, November 4th the Autumn Fanfare will be held in the Campus Center. TJC will have a representative booth upstairs, but we need people to man it throughout the day. If you would like to help people find out about your school and you can contribute an hour or two of your time, see Mary TePastte in 165 LHH.

This week and this week alone you will get the once in a life time chance to submit bids on items left over from the SIN Auction. Items will be going fast, so watch for more information.

TODAY thru FRIDAY from 8:30 to 5:00 there will be a Salt glazed pottery exhibit featuring the works of Greg Jaris, in the Campus Center Art Gallery. Open to the public and free of charge.

THURSDAY, November 4th at 3:30 p.m. a film, "THROUGH A GLASS DARKLY." will be presented by CAS in Room 132 LHH

Another "Autumn Fanfare" event will take place this Friday at 7 p.m. There will be a dance, bonfire and a hotdog roast at the Ski hill area. See you there

A SIN meeting is scheduled for Wednesday at 2:00 p.m. in Mary's office.

At 3:00 p.m. on Monday, November 8th, the English Club of CAS is presenting for the colleges a 45-minute live program entitled "Bits of the Bard" in 132 LHH. The performers are from Minneapolis, Minn., and they have come here with an engaging program exclusively for us. Don't miss it...
