CALL FOR PAPERS:

SPECIAL WINTER 1994 ISSUE

A special winter issue of the Grand Valley Review, will be sponsored by the General Education Subcommittee and the University Curriculum Committee. The topic is "Core Curriculum in General Education." Papers, with accompanying diskettes (preferably not in "Professional Write") should be sent to Jacqueline Johnson, General Education Coordinator; or Roberta Simone, Editor. The deadline is November 5, 1993.

SPRING ISSUE, 1994

The Grand Valley Review and the Honors Program are jointly sponsoring a faculty/student symposium on the subject "Ethics in the Late Twentieth Century" at the Cook-DeWitt Center on February 8 and 9, 1994. In addition to panel discussions and reaction to them will be the reading of papers, some of which will be published in a special section on ethics in the spring 1994 issue of the Review. Any topic relating to ethics will be considered, but we hope that there will be a cross section of disciplines represented. Some suggestions:

- Ethics in Marketing
- Ethics in the Mass Media
- Ethics on Campus: Grading, Cheating, Text Selection
- Ethics in Geology
- Environmental Ethics—Jobs vs. Environment?
- Teaching Values: Education or Indoctrination?
- Ethics in the Political Process
- Ethics in the Political Process
- Ethics in Gender: Do Male and Female Ethics Differ?
- Ethics in Social Work
- Ethics in Photography
- Ethics in Philanthropy

We also welcome, as usual, poems (both light and serious), fiction, informal essays, reviews of books or productions, and art. Student works may also be submitted if they are recommended by a member of the faculty. Submissions (both hardcopy and diskette, preferably not "Professional Write") should be sent to Roberta Simone, Editor. The deadline is March 1, 1994.
