CALL FOR PAPERS

Deadline: June 30, 1993

Editors: Diana Mitchell and John Smolens

As the editorship of LJMJ changes hands we would like the first issue to focus on

"Winds of Change"

The editors invite you to submit a manuscript for consideration for the Fall 1993 issue. The theme "Winds of Change" focuses on changes that have had an impact on your teaching as well as changes you see coming that will present new challenges for educators. We welcome papers dealing with any aspect of change including:

- participation in writing projects
- infusion of new curricula materials
- meeting the needs of a more diverse student population
- using cooperation learning
- using process writing
- new teacher testing procedures
- restructuring in your school district
- involvement in outcomes based education
- new teaching styles or strategies
- sensitivity to gender and race issues

Length

- articles 4 to 12 pages in length, using MLA style
- also short pieces up to 300 words on what book, class, or experience changed you the most as a teacher
