Call for Manuscripts

Spring 2004: Developing local, global, and affective knowledge about reading

(Manuscripts must be received by November 1, 2003. Electronic submissions are encouraged.)

In her discussion of balance in the reading program, Fitzgerald (1999) has talked about the importance of developing students' local knowledge about reading (e.g., phonological awareness; word level knowledge, vocabulary knowledge), global knowledge about reading (understanding, interpretation, response, metacognitive knowledge), and affective knowledge about reading (love of reading, positive attitudes toward reading, motivation and desire to read). Please share with us the ways in which you develop these kinds of knowledge about reading in your grade level.

- Manuscripts should not exceed 2,500-3,000 words.
- Author's name, mailing address, telephone number, FAX number, e-mail address, and professional affiliation should be on a separate cover page. The author's name should not appear in the manuscript.
- Three members of the editorial review board will review all manuscripts.
- Manuscripts must be received by November 1, 2003. Decisions will be reached within four months for this issue.
- If a manuscript is accepted for publication, its author must provide a computer disk copy of the manuscript, preferably in MS Word.
- Charts, graphs, drawings, and high quality photographs pertaining to article topics will be appreciated. Photographs from a digital camera can be submitted digitally.
- Send either: a) an electronic e-mail attachment; or b) six copies of the manuscript, a disk with your submission, and two self-addressed stamped envelopes to:
