Strange, As It Seems

FRANCIS HOSMAN

What would you
see if you closed your eyes and saw what there is outside the window, the colors and everything—white and brown building red and white striped cabanas, beach blue sky, clouds white—What would that be?

What would you see
then, if you went down the street to the right turned right again and entered my house, came upstairs and looked at me with my eyes closed sitting in the bed looking out the window inside
my head?
