Call for Manuscripts

The Michigan Reading Journal, the refereed journal of the Michigan Reading Association, is seeking manuscripts for publication in future issues. In addition to the themes listed, manuscripts on any topic related to literacy, i.e., reading, writing, listening, speaking, viewing, visually representing, technology, or children's/young adult literature will be considered. Manuscripts submitted after the specified deadlines will be reviewed for future issues.

Spring 2003: Informational Text in the Classroom

(Manuscripts must be received by November 1, 2002. Electronic submissions are encouraged.)

This issue will address the various ways in which teachers use informational text to support students' learning in the reading program and across the curriculum. Do your students read informational text in guided reading or during shared reading experiences? Do they read informational trade books in the content areas? Do you teach students strategies for constructing meaning when reading informational texts? Share with our readership the ways in which students engage with informational text in your literacy program

- Manuscripts should not exceed 2,500-3,000 words.
- Author's name, mailing address, telephone number, FAX number, e-mail address, and professional affiliation should be on a separate cover page. The author's name should not appear in the manuscript.
- Three members of the editorial review board will review all manuscripts.
- Manuscripts must be received by November 1, 2002. Decisions will be reached within four months for this issue.
- If a manuscript is accepted for publication, its author must provide a computer disk copy of the manuscript, preferably in MS Word.
- Charts, graphs, drawings, and high quality photographs pertaining to article topics will be appreciated. Photographs from a digital camera can be submitted digitally.
- Send either: a) an electronic email attachment; or b) six copies of the manuscript, a disk with your submission, and two self-addressed stamped envelopes to:
