That Is To Say,

The core of my papier-maché being
Is not so delicate as your blown-glass head.
The backing for my glued-on outer shell
Is not so fragile as your light-bulb brain.
The center of my pasted pieces
Is strong as steel
Is hard as nails
Is unbreakable as iron
The axis of my colorful coating is made of many faces, many towns, many beatings (i.e. The core of my papier-maché soul

Optimism

The miniature bulldozer grabs a shovel and fills his bucket with beach sand and pebbles, endlessly dumping and filling again, never realizing the improbability of a five-year old moving the ocean.
