As I Lay Sleeping at 3:00 A.M.

Something moved in the forest.
Quietly, in the safe and dark of night,
Past trees and flowers,
Silently by the stream
Stirring the muddy waters.

Something moved in the forest.
Last night I awoke in sweat
And felt only the air as it moved
Without fear or apprehension
Along the damp and trodden ground.

Something moved in the forest:
No man, no child, no animal or insect, that, nor anything
like what I've ever known,
but something moved in the forest,

For even as I sat frozen on my bed,
I felt it stir my soul.
