The Michigan Reading Journal is published by the Michigan Reading Association, an intermediate council of the International Reading Association. The Journal, dedicated to the dissemination of information to improve the teaching of reading, presents articles on a wide spectrum of topics and issues in reading, language arts, and literature, preschool through adult levels. The Journal incorporates articles that address both theory and practice.

The Michigan Reading Association was founded in 1956. The Michigan Reading Journal has been published since the spring of 1967. Membership in the MRA includes a subscription to the Journal. Single copies are $5.00 prepaid.

Because the Michigan Reading Journal represents an open forum, the viewpoints expressed herein are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect or imply endorsement or advocacy by the Michigan Reading Association, its officers, or members.

MRA Mission Statement

The Michigan Reading Association is a dynamic organization whose mission is to promote literacy by enabling the varied communities of learners to become knowledgeable decision makers and by providing opportunities to share common and diverse interests and beliefs.

MICHIGAN READING JOURNAL

EDITORIAL REVIEW BOARD MEMBERS

If you are currently a member of the MRJ Editorial Review Board, or if you would like to volunteer your expertise as a new member of the board, please take a moment to complete the following form. We would like to thank you for the valuable service you perform for the literacy community. It is important that each manuscript submitted to MRJ receives a fair reading by three of the author's peers. We send potential articles to professionals at all levels—early childhood, elementary, intermediate, middle and high school, university, and adult literacy specialists. Your commitment is important to the continued excellence of our state journal.
