AI . . . OR I . . . OR EYE

I never did find out what life was all about And then I died or what's that crap they tried to dish out to me concerning rain

But I'll tell you something buddie . .
(up from my hollow-voiced belly) that what ever you go the answer is always just that much more walking . . i.e. dragging one dead limb behind

So, while I lie here among flowers and silk don't think I was one to journey out of my way

hell, no,

I just kind of fell over backwards and cooled it watched with unblinking eyes the wide grey sky cataract

See?
