WAY-OUT

We come as close as we can come to once again relive the past but talk of times enjoyed or shared and the reflection of dim memories in mirrors of another's soul do not bring back the moment which forever is part of us and forever lost transformed by time and other times into a blueprint for tomorrow for we will come again and seek to disinter the past half-decomposed metamorphosed our souls seek to escape the walls of time and space.

UPSHOT OF A LECTURE

It is far easier
to die
on stage
than it is to finish
the act.
