Call For Manuscripts

Types of Submissions

- Manuscripts, which should not exceed 15 typed, single-sided, double-spaced pages, may take a variety of forms:
- Descriptions of literacy instructional practices that are based upon practical experience or research.
- Descriptions of students' development as language users.
- Narratives about our learning or our students' learning that occurred in the school setting or elsewhere.
- Commentaries on or analysis of issues related to literacy.
- Research reports and summaries of research published elsewhere.
- Cartoons or graphics related to literacy.

Peer Review Policy

Each submission will be reviewed by three of the members of the MRA Editorial Review Board. At least two of the three reviewers will perform roughly the same role as the author; for example, when a classroom teacher submits an article, at least two of the reviewers will also be current classroom teachers.

Submission Requirements

- All manuscripts should be prepared using guidelines outlined in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association.
- The first page of the submission should contain the title and author's name, address, phone numbers (work and home), and e-mail address. Also include a two-sentence descriptions of yourself, including affiliation with local reading council, if applicable. Neither membership in MRA nor in a local council is required for manuscript acceptance.
- No identifying information should appear anywhere else on the manuscript, since the review process is anonymous.
- Authors should submit four (4) copies of articles along with disk of the article and one stamped, self-addressed envelope. No manuscripts or disks will be returned.
- Decisions about manuscripts are normally made within two months.
- Once your manuscript is accepted for publication, you will be asked to revise the manuscript if necessary and to resubmit a printed copy and updated disk in text format. Charts, graphs, drawings, and high quality photographs pertaining to article topics will be appreciated.

MRA Mission Statement

The Michigan Reading Association is a dynamic organization whose mission is to promote literacy by enabling the varied communities of learners to become knowledgeable decision makers and by providing opportunities to share common and diverse interests and beliefs.
