ABOUT THE COVER: The cover of a 1740 reader is superimposed over a page of a writing book from the same era. The covers were selected from the Lucile Clarke Memorial Children's Library collection at Central Michigan University by Librarian Evelyn Leasher. The design is by Cheryl Dusty-DeLauro.

The Michigan Reading Journal is published by the Michigan Reading Association, an intermediate council of the International Reading Association. The Journal, dedicated to the dissemination of information to improve the teaching of reading, presents articles on a wide spectrum of topics and issues in reading, language arts, and literature, preschool through adult levels. The Journal incorporates articles that address both theory and practice.

The Michigan Reading Association was founded in 1956. The Michigan Reading Journal has been published since the spring of 1967. Membership in the MRA includes a subscription to the Journal. Single copies are $4.00 prepaid.

Because the Michigan Reading Journal represents an open forum, the viewpoints expressed herein are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect or imply endorsement or advocacy by the Michigan Reading Association, its officers, or members.
