to leave our house

this all in the kitchen with black Jesus Christ at the table

the friends
for years not in the same city or place needn't stand out by the cars to talk

it's going to the hall
and eating his meal
talking miles fast
and laughing before
the drive home

FOR ROBERT E. LEE

i worry
that the cats in the afternoon
heat crawl up
in the engines
to the shade

all we try
as arts just finding one
spot

CALICO (For Gladine)

flour in fifty pound sack sugar in twenty pound sacks there's still some this way

print muslin making the sacks not seem to be what they are holding things but

into shirts dresses
aprons the only trouble is that
no two sacks
are the same never enough of one
color except for baby
