Rage

to FB

Intimacy a keenly rolled eye, a pinioned gauntlet and a curved beak against contrary cheeks, but when love is spoken falcon glares angrily, turns an aloof shoulder, beats her wings high up over the stone mews.

Newt salamander and toad leap out of sarcastic stories, are dropped like pierced rabbits at my feet.

An untamed rage thistling her breast, hawk glares from hooded eyes into my taloned heart.
