The Michigan Reading Journal is published by the Michigan Reading Association, an intermediate council of the International Reading Association. Our Journal, dedicated to the dissemination of information to improve the teaching of reading, presents articles on a wide spectrum of topics and issues in reading, language arts, and literature, preschool through adult levels. The Journal incorporates articles which address both theory and practice.

The Michigan Reading Association was founded in 1956. The Michigan Reading Journal has been published since the spring of 1967. Membership in the MRA includes a subscription to this Journal. Single copies are $4.00, prepaid.

Because the Michigan Reading Journal represents an open forum, the viewpoints expressed herein are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect or imply endorsement or advocacy by the Michigan Reading Association, its officers or its members.
