LANGUAGE ARTS JOURNAL OF MICHIGAN

VOLUME 33, NUMBER 2, SPRING 2018

About the Cover:

This untitled image by Pixabay artist M. Maggs shows a vintage bus, adorned by peeling paint and suggestions of abandonment. The historical perspective that this bus calls forth harkens back to a time when advocacy was a way of life for many. Becoming an advocate for literacy, and championing for our students to become critical readers of nuanced language, has arguably never been more significant than it is now. This image speaks to the importance of timeless practices and enduring habits of mindfulness.

Corrections:

In the Fall 2016 and Spring 2017 issues, author Bernadette Gongora's profile should not have included Mott Community College as an affiliation.
