STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

Alix B. Dorsey, 2nd Grade Detroiter

What makes you happy?

Gymnastics and ice cream!

What do you want to be when you grow up?

I'm undecided. Either a gymnastics coach or an art teacher!

Why is literacy important?

Literacy is important because it's not good to have trash all over the world! Trash is dirty and stinky and not good for us. (Her initial response after learning what the word "literacy" means and how it's different from the word "litter!") Well, knowing how to read and write is important because when you grow up and have kids - they'll need help with their homework and you'll be able to help them so they can graduate and go to college.

What is your favorite book or story?

The Pinkalicious book series!

What can children and adults do to make the world a better place?

Help each other! Help old ladies cross the street! Help homeless people find homes and food! Help one another!
