President's Farewell

By Beverly Chamberlain
President — 1971-72

I would like to take the opportunity to thank the Michigan Reading Association for granting me the privilege of serving as your president for this past year. It has been, for me, a most happy experience.

Each member with whom I have dealt has been ready, willing and very able to carry out whatever work needed to be done. This is the reason, of course, that we have succeeded once again in providing such a fine conference at Grand Rapids for Michigan educators.

As I leave the office of president, I am more grateful to each of you than words can express. Thank you!
