

Informed Learning Applications: Insights from Research and Practice

[2019] Emerald Publishing, Advances in Librarianship series

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements
Figures and Tables
Contributors' Biographies

Preface

Christine Bruce, Graduate Research, James Cook University, Australia

Introduction

Kim L. Ranger

1. The Six Frames in Schools: Practices from Taiwan
Lin Ching Chen, Department of E-learning Design & Management, National Chiayi University, Taiwan
Yaw-Huei Chen, Department of Computer Science & Information Engineering, National Chiayi University, Taiwan
2. Simultaneous Learning about Research and Filmmaking: Informed Learning and Research Guides
Shelley Woods, Library and Learning Services, Sheridan College, United States
Kathleen Cummins, Faculty of Animation, Art and Design, Sheridan College, United States
3. Beyond Information Literacy: Rethinking Approaches to the College Public Speaking Curriculum
Danielle R. Leek, Campus Compact, United States
Carl J. Brown, Communication Studies, Grand Valley State University, United States
4. Ways of Learning of Information Professionals: Concepts, Roles, and Strategies
Virginia M. Tucker, School of Information, San José State University, United States
5. Relational Liaising to Integrate Informed Learning into the Disciplinary Classroom
Kim L. Ranger, University Libraries, Grand Valley State University, United States
6. Academic Librarians as Informed Learning Developers
Rachel Fundator, Libraries and School of Information Studies, Purdue University, United States
Clarence Maybee, Libraries and School of Information Studies, Purdue University, United States
7. Information Literacy (IL) 'Without Borders': The Future of IL Education.
Veronica Cunningham, Cunningham Education, Norway
8. Power and Resistance in Informed Learning
Andrew Whitworth, Manchester Institute of Education, University of Manchester, United Kingdom
Lee Webster, Alliance Manchester Business School, University of Manchester, United Kingdom