Why'd the Chicken
Cross the Road

IRVING WASHINGTON

Why'd the chicken cross the road,
Said the farmer to the skies.
I don't know said the crow
And pecked out both his eyes.

Some kids are big, some kids are small,
Some kids are short, some kids are tall.
Some kids like me
Are hard to see
But you can find us near the ground,
Instead of up, we all grow down!
How wee are we's
Small as fleas
Or bumble bees knees
So please, please
Watch where you go
Step light and slow
Or we'll be goo
Stuck to your shoe
Mushy, squishy, ker-splat
And hey, no one wants that!
