

Costumes

Scott Szabo

first impressions are the worst putting on just enough of a mask; hiding the majority of faults, to appear just like them not too pushy, not too relaxed they're still strangers but not for long and we'll look back at year's end and be amazed at how little we knew how well our masks were on